1) Read the given poem and do the activities below.

I live in the town

In a street;

It is crowded with traffic

And feet;

There are buses and motors

And trams;

I wish there were meadows

And lambs.

The houses all wait

In a row,

There is smoke everywhere

That I go.

I don't like the noises

I hear

I wish there were woods

Very near.

There is only one thing

That I love,

And that is the sky

Far above,

There is plenty of room

In the blue

For castles of clouds

And me, too!

3) Read the given passage and do the activities below.

My strongest childhood memory is from when I was six years old. My father woke me up in the middle of the night. He told me that we were taking mum to the hospital and that I should come too. He dressed me and helped mum to go downstairs. We got in a taxi and drove to the hospital speeding. As soon as we arrived, my mum was taken away, and my father and I waited nervously. I don't remember how long we waited. It must have been hours, because I know I felt tired and then fell asleep at one stage. Finally, a nurse called my father. Then I saw my mum holding a tiny bundle wrapped in a blanket. I looked and saw a little person with a wrinkled face. I couldn't believe it! I had a new brother!
