1. Read the following text and do the activities that follow.

I am Arunima Sunuwar. I read in class three. The name of my school is Durbar High School. It is located at the centre of Kathmandu Valley. It is also known as Bhanu Secondary School. It was established during Rana regime. The then Prime Minister Jung Bahadur Rana, the first Rana Prime Minister of Nepal, built it in 1854 AD (BS 1910).

Durbar High School is the first modern school in Nepal. The school was originally built to provide education to the children of the upper ruling class Rana families, but was opened to public citizens in 1901 by Dev Shumsher. At first, Rana children were given education at Thapathali Durbar but later Jung Bahadur Rana moved it to its own building at Ranipokhari.

The school lies next to Ranipokhari built by king Pratap Malla. The school was originally an elementary English school. It was the only English medium school in the country though it has Nepali medium now. Classes run from nursery to class 12. All the teachers are well-experienced.
